CROSS COUNTRY STAFFING, INC., et al.,
Plaintiff(s),
v.
KENNYSHUA DANIELS,
Defendant(s).

Case No.2:24-CV-699 JCM (DJA)

ORDER

Presently before the court are several motions filed by plaintiffs Cross Country Staffing, Inc. and New Mediscan II, LLC, d/b/a Cross Country Education: a motion for a temporary restraining order (ECF No. 5), a motion for a preliminary injunction (ECF No. 6), a motion to shorten time (ECF No. 7), a motion to seal (ECF No. 8), a motion to expedite discovery (ECF No. 9), and a motion to short time regarding the motion to expedite discovery (ECF No. 10).

Plaintiffs allege that the defendant, Kennyshua Daniels, is a former employee of the plaintiffs who violated her employment agreement by surreptitiously working for two of the plaintiffs' competitors and misappropriating company trade secrets. (See generally ECF No. 5). Plaintiffs further allege that, without court intervention, they will suffer irreparable harm in the form of loss of goodwill, destruction of trade secrets, loss of confidentiality, and competitive disadvantage. (Id. at 18). Plaintiffs inform the court that the summons and complaint, as well as all motions, have been served on the defendant. (ECF No. 5-3; ECF No. 10, at 2).

In light of the above, the court agrees that the plaintiffs' motions (ECF Nos. 5, 6, 9) should be handled in an expedited manner. Accordingly, the court will defer ruling on these motions until the defendant has had an opportunity to respond.
